Women on Whose Shoulders We Stand

A four-part series on women in the Scripture

This program is devoted to increasing the awareness of the significant contributions of women, named and unnamed, in the Scriptures, and to identify ways they serve as role models for women today. The first two sessions will focus on women in the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament), and the third and fourth sessions will focus on women in the New Testament.

Session I: Oct. 11, 2014
Who are the women we know from the Old Testament and what do we know about them?

Session II: Dec. 13, 2014
What can we learn from the stories of the women in the Old Testament?

Session III: March 7, 2015
Who are the named and unnamed women in the New Testament?

Session IV: April 18, 2015
What can we learn from these women of the New Testament? How might they serve as role models for us in the 21st century?

Presented by:
Susan Schorsten, HM

“I have a great interest in women in the Church and have found that getting to know the women in our Scriptures and praying with them has been a great inspiration and source of encouragement to me. I have served for many years in leadership positions within my own religious congregation, with the Diocese of Charleston, South Carolina, and in our health care ministry. At present, I am serving as a consultant with religious congregations in the areas of planning elder care.”

Sessions run from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. • Cost: $25 per session includes lunch/refreshments • Register online at vmesc.org or call 724-964-8886
